LATEST EVENTS

JANUARY 20

On January 20, 2021, more than 200 participants joined us on a webinar organized in collaboration with UKM Global. The event focused on the opportunities offered by French Higher Education Institutions to post-graduate students. Representatives from INP Clermont Auvergne (engineering school), EM Normandy (business school) and Sciences Po Paris (political sciences) presented their programs.

FEBRUARY 27

MFUC collaborated with MyStudy on February 27, 2021 to organize a virtual info session on undergraduate studies. Participants got the opportunity to discover different academic courses available in France. From studies in culinary arts to French as a Foreign Language, representatives from various institutions shared with them how to join the next intake, either in French or in English.

MARCH 23

The Generation Equality Forum is a global gathering for gender equality, convened by UN Women and co-chaired this year by France and Mexico. French and Mexican representatives in Malaysia aimed to give a Malaysian perspective to this event. On March 23, 2021, a webinar was organized to talk about gender equality in Malaysia with panelists from different Malaysian universities.

FOCUS ON...

THE MATCH PROGRAM - 2021

Are you working on a research project with a French laboratory?

The MALaysia-France bilaTeral researCH collaboration 2021 (MATCH) is a joint funding program with the objective of structuring and stimulating research cooperation between France and Malaysia.

The Program is an initiative from the two governments aimed at pursuing the work initiated together in research collaboration after the successful implementation of the PHC-Hibiscus grant. This program is based on a call for projects, an independent evaluation process and a selection of projects guided by a common interest and ambition for excellence.

Selected projects must have a duration of two (2) years and will be supported according to each party's funding process on an equal basis. The call for proposals is open to all research teams from institutes or companies established in both countries.

The development of interdisciplinary collaborations and projects which address the priority areas listed below will be particularly welcomed:

- Environment, Climate Change, and Sustainable Cities
- Sustainable Agriculture and Food Security
- Health (Infectious Diseases, Non-Communicable Diseases and Epidemiology)
- Information and Communications Technology (AI and Multimedia, Big Data and Cybersecurity, ICT for Ageing)
- Engineering and Frontier Technology
- Social Science and Economic

The application deadline is on April 15, 2021.

PORTRAIT OF...

The laureates of MFUC Master Scholarship- 2020

Ms. Kah Yan (Celine) Pong has been selected to pursue a Master's program called "Mathematical Methods in Economics & Finance" at the University Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne. It will allow her to acquire the competencies to become a financial analyst.

Ms. Nurul Zulaikha Azmi Murad is studying at the prestigious Institut national des langues et civilisations orientales (Inalco) in Paris. She follows a Master in French on automatic language processing to become a linguistic engineer.

Mr. Hui Min (Damien) Leow is studying at the University Bordeaux Montaigne. His Master's program in "Experimentation and Research in the Performing Arts" will help him acquire methods and develop projects combining scenic experimentation and theoretical research.

Ms. Yee Chi (Annie) Poh is following an international research master's degree focusing on the physiological and psychological determinants of food choices offered by the University of Burgundy - Franche-Comté and Agrosup Dijon. She plans to pursue her studies after her Master by doing a PhD.

This year again, MFUC is implementing its Master scholarship program.

Funded by the Embassy of France in Malaysia, this program is dedicated to enhance the mobility of Malaysian Master students who intend to study in a French institution for one year. All areas of study are eligible.

This year, the deadline to apply is on April 16, 2021.

WHAT'S GOING ON ?

JomFrançais Francotour

To celebrate the month of Francophonie, JomFrançais organizes every year its Francotour in March. Visits in secondary school are organized where French learners get the chance to exchange with representatives from French-speaking countries. MFUC has been invited to participate this year.

It is a good occasion for MFUC to meet students who might plan to study in France.

Webinar on Pre-France programs

Don't miss out on our event organized in collaboration with UniKL and the Malaysia-France Institute (MFI) on April 21, 2021. You will learn everything about the Pre-France programs which focus on two main fields:

- Political Science and Business Management
- Engineering

Join us for this event to learn more on the opportunities offered by those programs.
